History The Dedication of a Church at Buntingford is thought to have taken place in the early 11th century. By the mid-12th century, a new parish church had been built, using stone from its older predecessor. on or near the site of the present rectory. The earlier parish church seems to have served the area of Buntingford Park (in the parish) and along the Upper River Lea. At the time of its dedication, the new church was a Thegnage, or the local feudal overlord. The Norman chancel
